BARN AND CROPS DESTROYED IN $10,000 BLAZE

Fire completely destroyed a large barn on the Harold Schuh farm, a mile and a half east of Gettysburg and a quarter of a mile south of the Hanover road early this morning, with a loss estimated at $10,000. Origin of the blaze is undetermined.

Gettysburg firemen were called at 1:40 a. m. and responded with two pumpers and the service truck. Bonneauville fire company, also summoned, took two pumpers to the fire.

Firemen were handicapped by lack of water. Fire Chief James A. Aumen said the only supply was from a well. Gettysburg firemen had to return to town to re-fill their booster tanks. Several outbuildings were saved.

Lost in the fire, in addition to a large quantity of hay, corn and other grain, were 1,200 chickens. Seventy-five hogs were saved.

Mr. Schuh said he was asleep in the farmhouse and was awakened by the light from the burning barn.

Gettysburg firemen did not return until 4:50 o'clock this morning.

Old Jail Has "New Look" As County Library

Transformed from an institution for the punishment of criminals, the former county jail building, now a library, bears little resemblance to its old self. The entire front of the building has been converted into a large reading room. Looking east, the photo above shows early visitors to the new library using what was formerly the sheriff's office and hall as reading sections for children and adults. On the left is the view that greets visitors as they enter the library. The doors at the rear lead to a stairway and hall.

'Open House' Tuesday Evening At Library After Annual Meeting

The general public is invited to inspect the Adams County Free Library's new home in the former county jail building next Tuesday evening when the membership of the library association gathers for its annual business meeting.

The brief business session will begin at 7:30 p. m. and the "open house" will follow. The president, Mrs. E. S. Lewars, will preside at the business session.

Just past its fourth birthday anniversary, the county library 10 days ago opened its doors to the public in its attractive new quarters.

Made Over 300,000 Book Loans
Vacating its old quarters on Carlisle street late in September, the library continued its bookmobile service throughout the county although the main library was closed several weeks while remodeling of its new property was completed.

In the four years the library has been in operation, book loans have passed the 300,000 mark, branches have been established in a number of county towns, book stations set up on a score of other town and rural communities and regular service to all schools of the county has been maintained.

The library now is conducting a campaign for funds with which to pay off the $9,000 it borrowed to pay for the jail property it bought earlier this year at public auction.

The building fund also will be used to finance the $7,500 spent in renovations so far.

Need More Funds
Additional funds will be needed to improve the new library property further. The old brick garage east of the library building will be removed as will the old cell block and jail yard wall. Upper floors of the library building also will be improved as funds become available.

Donations already received approximate $5,000 for the building fund. The campaign is being conducted by a committee headed by O. H. Benson and including C. A. Willis, Fairfield; Richard A. Brown, Gettysburg R. D.; Senator Donald P. McPherson and Charles I. Raffensperger, both of Gettysburg, and William M. Lott, Gardners R. D.

In his appeal for library gifts, Mr. Benson points out that the library "has kept all the promises it made to the public when the library was formed." He pointed out that a central library has been maintained in Gettysburg with branches in the county being opened as rapidly as quarters and leadership have become available. "Red Wing," the bookmobile, has carried 1,000 books on each trip it makes on regular schedules to all parts of the county. (Please Turn to Page 5)

Severe Winter Weather, Late Spring Predicted By Almanac
The approaching winter's weather will be "wet" and December will be bitter cold and contain more storms of rain and snow than usual, says the 1950 edition of the Old Farmer's Almanac, copies of which will be ready for sale on newsstands about November 20.
Next year will see the 13th falling on Friday twice during the year—in January and again in October. It will miss Friday by one day three times. The 13th will fall on Thursday in July and on Saturday in May and August.
The only total eclipse visible in all parts of the United States will be that of the moon on September 25.
The 1950 Almanac marks the 158th continuous year of publication. It is only five years younger than the U.S. Constitution. It was first published in 1792 while Washington was still serving his first presidential term. It is published at Dublin, N. H.

225 PERSONS AT FIRST NATIONAL DINNER FRIDAY

"The world is made up of three types of people, those who know their duty and don't do it; those who know their duty and do it, and those who know their duty and do more than their duty." Theodore R. McKeldin, former Baltimore mayor and one-time Republican candidate for governor of Maryland, told 225 shareholders of the First National Bank of Gettysburg and their guests at the annual shareholders' dinner Friday night at the Hotel Gettysburg.

"The latter are those who make up the shareholders of this bank," he added. "They are the people who recognize their obligations, who are willing to build America and keep the glorious heritage passed on to them."

E. W. Thomas, president of the bank, presided as toastmaster. Among others who were introduced and spoke briefly were Burgess C. A. Heiges; George W. Riley, president of the Harrisburg National bank and the Harrisburg Trust company, a past president of the Pennsylvania Bankers' association and director of the Federal Reserve bank of Philadelphia; and D. M. Brumbaugh, state secretary of banking. Paul L. Spangler, Gettysburg, newly-elected president of the Adams County Bankers' association, was also introduced.

In his address Mr. McKeldin drew a comparison between the "chosen people" which Moses led out of bondage in Egypt with the people of today.

Cites Types of People

"There were four kinds," Mr. McKeldin said. "The Jews had been in slavery 300 years when they began their pilgrimage. The first type were those who were constantly complaining about their lot. They complained that they had no food and no clothing. They wanted to return to Egypt, where at least they would be fed and clothed. How prevalent that type is today. A man or a nation which is willing to give up freedom for security is not worth either freedom or security. What we need in America today are not those who would turn back, but those who never falter but fight ahead."

"The second type of those Moses brought into the wilderness were those who were happy because they were out of Egypt, and had no restrictions. They could eat, drink and be merry, with no thought for the morrow. There are a lot of people like that amongst us. More than 100 million Americans belong to no church whatever. What magnificent soil they offer for the preaching of the various ideologies rampant in the United States today."

"Must Pay Price"

Mr. McKeldin said the third type were the ones who said: "We had a bad time in Egypt, and we are having a bad time in the desert." They are the ones, Mr. McKeldin said, who have no appreciation of their advantages.

"The fourth class were the ones Moses could depend upon. They were few. They are the ones who believe in the American way of life. (Please Turn to Page 2)

SENATOR SAYS TRUMAN WILL BE RE-NOMINATED

Washington, Nov. 19 (P)—Senator Anderson (D-N.M.) expressed confidence today that the Democratic party will re-nominate President Truman in 1952 and that he will win another four-year term.

Anderson, formerly Mr. Truman's secretary of agriculture, is now chairman of the Democratic Senatorial campaign committee. He recently returned to the capitol from the west to map a campaign for retaining Democratic control of the Senate in next year's election when 36 seats will be at stake.

Talking to a reporter, Anderson said he is optimistic about Democratic changes in both the 1950 and 1952 elections. As for Mr. Truman, he commented:

Predicts Victory

"I think he'll be the nominee and will be elected." He added:

"I also am confident that the party will retain its majority in the Senate and increase it. I have been talking with a lot of farmers and businessmen in California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma and Colorado and I'm very much encouraged."

Anderson has been among those mentioned as possible Democratic presidential timber in 1952 if Mr. Truman is not nominated. The President has declined to say what his plans are for 1952.

HOPE FOR BREAK IN DEADLOCKED COAL DISPUTE

Washington, Nov. 19 (AP)—Government labor advisers kept a close watch on John L. Lewis and soft coal operators today in hope of a possible break in the deadlocked coal dispute.

The last word from both the UMW chief and the mine owners made clear that each side was waiting for the other to make the first move.

Government officials, keeping hands off the situation for the time being, hoped that the possibility of a new strike at the end of this month would force either the mine leader or the operators to offer a new proposal for negotiations.

No Sign Of Action

While they expressed belief that the break might come soon, there was no sign of action from Lewis or the operators.

The United Mine Workers president said Sunday that he was ready to talk contract at the "convenience" of the owners, and indicated that the next move was up to them.

A spokesman for northern, western and commercial coal companies said, however, that the operators are waiting for Lewis to act. At the same time, he indicated that mine owners are feeling the pressure of the 5-day miners' walkout which ended with a truce last week.

The spokesman, Frank Amos of Pittsburgh, said that means Lewis is less likely to get the terms he is seeking. Lewis has never said just what they are.

"Can't Give Any More"

"We can't give him any more now than we could have given him in June," Amos said in a telephone conversation with a reporter here yesterday. "Because of the strike we lost hundreds of customers. We were in better shape in June than we are now."

He said the UMW leader knows what the operators' position is and can start negotiations again "any time he wants to talk reasonable contract terms." That apparently expressed the view of the southern operators as well.

The three-week truce Lewis called in the Maine strike is due to end November 30.

Rope Snaps; Aerialist Killed In Circus Act

Kansas City, Nov. 19 (AP)—"You will now witness the most desperate attempt at suicide ever made by man," shouted the circus announcer.

From a tiny platform 96 feet high, Jan Vogel, 37, billed as the "great Stanelly," leaped for a trapeze 10 feet away. As always, he missed the trapeze and started to fall. And as always, he had a rope tied to his ankle to check his plunge.

But last night the rope broke. He fell to the floor as more than 9,000 persons in the audience gasped.

Attendants quickly rushed him from the arena of Municipal auditorium and the show went on. Many persons in the crowd thought the fall was part of the act. Vogel died shortly afterward in a hospital. Formerly of Amsterdam, Holland, he had been in this county about a year.

SEES PLAN TO KILL TAX LAW

State College, Pa., Nov. 19 (AP)—A municipal affairs expert predicted that the 1951 General Assembly will try to kill Pennsylvania's controversial local tax law.

Philip C. Pendleton, second vice president of the state Association of Boroughs, issued the prediction at a round table discussion here yesterday on the law. It permits municipalities to tax anything not already taxed by the state.

"If we don't get busy," Pendleton warned some 200 municipal finance officers here for their annual convention, "the 1951 state legislature will remove Act 481 (local tax law)." In another address, Welles A. Gray, state division director of the Pennsylvania Economy league, said "Act 481 gives local government the financial sinews to do the jobs that must be done."

"This new 'home rule' which the act provides, will let the people solve their own problems without depending on the state or the nation," Gray said.

Robert Jamison, assistant city solicitor of New Castle, pointed out that an educational program in that city influenced many civic groups that had been against an income tax to favor it. He said, however, that incumbents who had approved the tax, were defeated for re-election. He also pointed out that real estate tax was reduced from 15 to 10 mills after the income tax became effective early this year.

CONTINUE PROBE AT BETHLEHEM

Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 19 (AP)—A coroner's jury hearing into the death of a 32-year-old former night club hostess has been continued until next Friday.

At a partial hearing last night Dr. Thomas J. Cope of St. Luke's hospital testified the blow of a blunt instrument probably caused the death of Mrs. Ruth E. Mickle. He told the jury "it is unlikely a fall down stairs would have caused the death."

The hearing was continued until next Friday because one of the jurors, Roy A. Wood, said he must be in Chicago on business today.

Mrs. Mickle, mother of three children, was found dead on the morning of November 10 in the rumbling room of the Colonnade, a Bethlehem night club where she formerly was employed as a hostess.

Raymond Ward, Sr., 56, handyman and janitor at the Colonnade, told the jury he was ordered by Bartender James Calcio to wash down the steps after he found Mrs. Mickle's body in one of the club booths. It was on the same steps, he said, that her unconscious form was found earlier when she was helped to the booth where he found her.

Still to be heard from at the session next week are the three men who police say were Mrs. Mickle's companions at the club bar during the evening before her death.

John Burnett of the Cleveland Indians collected nine hits in 11 times at bat in a 1932 game—the major league record.

SCHOOLBOY, 16, ADMITS KILLING 7-YEAR OLD GIRL

Twin Falls, Idaho, Nov. 19 (AP)—Neil (Butterfingers) Butterfield, 16-year-old high school athlete, confessed last night to the thrill slaying of seven-year-old Glenda Joyce Brisbois.

The youth, who was arrested as he fed west in a stripped-down "hot rod," told officers he killed the child "just to see someone die."

Sheriff Saul Clark of Cassia county said the youth admitted orally that he slugged the little blonde first grader from Burley, Idaho, with a tire jack before throwing her body into a canal.

But the sheriff said he denied that he assaulted the girl.

Glenda, fully clothed, was found in the canal Thursday. She had three wounds on her head. She was last seen Wednesday evening when she entered an automobile driven by a man. Officers announced following an autopsy last night that the girl had been assaulted.

Waives Hearing

Shortly after Butterfield made his confession, he was taken under heavy guard 27 miles east of Twin Falls just inside the Cassia county line. There, in a field of sagebrush beside the highway he was arraigned before Probate Judge Henry W. Tucker of Cassia county on a first degree murder charge.

He waived preliminary hearing and was remanded to custody of the Twin Falls county sheriff.

The open air courtroom was within the legal limits of the county where the crime was committed. Officers feared to take him into Burley because of high feeling among citizens of the town of 3,500.

Butterfield, a handsome, six-foot, 175-pound youth, was recently released from the Idaho State Industrial school at St. Anthony, where he was sent as a delinquent after a case involving forgery. He was nabbed yesterday by state police 110 miles west of Burley as he drove west in his stripped-down "hot rod."

He was taken from there to Jerome, where he made his oral confession before six state, county and city police officers.

Apartment Replaces Sanatorium Building

Harrisburg, Nov. 19 (AP)—One of the original buildings at the Mont Alto state tuberculosis sanatorium in Franklin county will be razed by the General State Authority to make way for a badly needed new apartment building.

The building is the gray, shingle-covered infirmary which has not been used since completion of the present seven-story main infirmary that made Mont Alto one of the leading sanatoria in America.

The new apartment building will be erected as part of Governor James H. Duff's $175,000,000 program of necessary public works.

The Authority has earmarked $214,000 for the new building. This amount will cover designing, financing and administrative expenses and an allowance for contingencies as well as actual construction costs.

SEX OF WOMAN IS CHANGED BY "OPERATION"

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 19 (AP)—A strange new adventure in life has begun for a 33-year-old woman—she has become a man.

Dr. Charles F. Church said yesterday that the former Edna Genecki of nearby South River has been changed into Ed Genecki—at "her" own request—by an operation at an out-of-state hospital.

Genecki lived his first 33 years of life as a girl and woman. He graduated from Rutgers university and later became a junior executive at Johnson and Johnson company here—all as a woman.

But "Edna"—though considered a good-looking coed by Rutgers classmates—had deep doubts as to her rightful place in nature's scheme, Dr. Church said.

Shaved Every Day

She found she had to shave every day, and she had unusually strong hands and arms for a woman.

Finally, Dr. Church said, she came to him for advice.

Dr. Church sent the troubled woman to leading medical authorities. They agreed that she was predominantly male and with her full cooperation suggested an operation to complete the transformation to a normal man.

The new Ed Genecki will be coming home next week. He'll take up his old job where he left it and take a new place in the community as a man.

Neighbors and co-workers have been told of his change.

They all want to help Ed lead the normal life that was denied to Edna.

SURPRISED HE ESCAPED DEATH

Tampa, Fla., Nov. 19 (AP)—Capt. Samuel L. Pearson, of Elizabeth, Pa., never thought he'd make it.

That was his reaction last night as he relived those last few terrifying seconds before a B-29 crashed here yesterday.

Five of his buddies died in the crash. One victim was S. Sgt. Andrew J. Steinman, Riverside, Pa.

Three other survivors can't figure how they are alive either. All four rode the tailpiece of the ill-fated Superfort which crashed into the mud of Tampa Bay. It broke off from the rest of the ship and was the only recognizable piece of the plane left.

Pearson and his three injured companions are at the MacDill Air Base hospital.

All four said they knew the ship was in trouble. They all felt the plane was headed for disaster. Somehow one of the airmen escaped through a blister; the others gained freedom through an emergency hatch after it was down.

The plane was the sixth B-29 involved in five disasters in the past 15 days. It was taking off to hunt 20 missing flyers aboard a plane which crashed landed Wednesday somewhere off Bermuda.

"The world is constantly changing, economically and politically, but nothing can harm us if we are fundamentally strong."

Mr. Brumbaugh, in brief remarks, complimented the bank on its sound position, and poised his other remarks on a note of loyalty.

"How many of you are loyal to your bank?" he asked. "How many of you keep your money in the bank where you are a stockholder? With a group like this, if you go to work, in the coming year you could add a million dollars in deposits. It is the duty of every stockholder to cooperate with the officers of the bank. Cooperation is the thing which makes banks what they are and what they should be."

Urges Sound Government

Turning to national affairs, Mr. Brumbaugh said: "The power to tax is the power to destroy. Congress can vote to make us poor, but Congress can never vote to make us rich. Borrowing and spending and continuing the mounting deficits can only result in the repudiation of our national debts. If that should happen, we as a nation will sink as Germany sank."

He closed with a plea to establish a sound government, as handed down by the founding fathers.

In his remarks, President Thomas said there were many present who had lived through the post war periods of both World War I and World War II.

"The post war period following World War II is different in many respects, but it follows the same pattern. We are facing things now that we never faced before. Times have changed. The greatest amount of banking attention is being placed on the nature of assets." In elaborating on this, he pointed out that

Canners Finish With 21-12 Victory Over Waynesboro

Biglerville high school's rise in scholastic football received another shot in the arm Friday night when the Canners closed their season with a hard fought 21-12 triumph over the hapless Waynesboro high eleven of the South Penn conference. Previously the Canners dropped games to Hanover and Mechanicsburg of the conference.

Near freezing weather kept the crowd at a low figure but the hardy spectators were rewarded with a thrilling contest all the way. The victory was the sixth against five losses for the Canners.

Waynesboro scored early in the opening quarter and again in the second frame, both scores coming on passes. Biglerville moved over the goal in every period except the second to win out after trailing 12 to 7 at half-time.

Waynesboro held the edge during the first half but the Canners got rolling in the second half and had possession of the ball much of the time. Biglerville led in first downs 16 to 10. The Canners attempted seven passes, completed four, one for a touchdown and had one intercepted. Waynesboro went to the air six times completing two passes, both for tallies and had two intercepted. Waynesboro lost the ball once on a fumble.

Tornado Scores
Waynesboro returned the opening kick-off to its 34. Three first downs and a pass added up to a quick TD for the visitors. McCallum and Oiler plunged for a first down to midfield. Oiler cracked off tackle to the 22. McCallum pushed to the 10. From here a pass, Mitchell to Carson, clicked for six points. The extra point attempt was no good.

Later in the same quarter the Canners took possession on their own 41 and went the distance on a sustained drive. Iglauer circled end for a first down to the Waynesboro 40. On third down a pass Rice to Heller, was good to the 25. Heller, around end, picked up to the 13. Rice gained to the 9 on a quarterback sneak. Pitzer gained 8 and then to the 4. Then Rice, on a quarterback sneak, smashed over for a score to tie up the game. Heller made the extra point kick to send the Canners out in front 7 to 6.

Again in the second frame the Canners started to roll after Heller intercepted a pass on the 35 and a personal foul on Waynesboro gave them the ball on their opponents' 45. Heller went around end and cut back for a first down to the 35. Rice and Heller slammed to the 12. Pitzer moved to the 8 and Heller was thrown back to the 12.

This drive came to an abrupt end when Mitchell intercepted a pass on his goal line and ran it back 71 yards to the Biglerville 29 before he was brought down. Three plays later Iglauer intercepted a pass for Biglerville on the 15. Heller, on a pitchout, gained a first down on the 35. Here the attack stalled and the Canners were forced to kick. Waynesboro took possession on its 25 and once more headed for paydirt. Stull, on third down, got all the way to the Biglerville 42. McCallum carried to the 26. From this point Mitchell passed to Snowberger who scooped in the ball in the end zone. The extra point kick failed.

The Canners took the second half kickoff to their own 43 from where they proceeded to push down field to the final marker. On third down Rice gained a first down on a quarterback sneak to the Waynesboro 45. Pitzer plunged to the 34. Heller took a pitchout and scooted to the 18. On last down Rice shot a flat pass to Heller who faked the only man in his path out of position and raced down the sideline to score. His extra point kick was good.

Rice Tallies
Several plays later the Canners again took over on their 33. Iglauer broke through the Waynesboro defense into the open and raced 55 yards to his opponents' 12. Pitzer slammed to the six and B. Warner moved to the four where the Canners lost the ball on downs. Waynesboro took over and was forced to kick on fourth down as the fourth quarter got under way. Biglerville took over on the Waynesboro 40 and this time the goal line was crossed. Heller took a pitchout and got to the 29. Iglauer and Rice powered to the 11 for a first down. Heller, on another pitchout slammed to the three. Rice bucked over from here and Heller's extra point kick was good.

Waynesboro took the kick-off and started to move as two first downs took them to the Biglerville 32. Here they fumbled and Unger recovered for the Canners. Heller and Pitzer netted a first to their 45. Two passes, Rice to Heller and Heller to Iglauer, were good for first downs to the Waynesboro 44 and 27. On fourth down Rice moved to the 13 on a quarterback sneak. A line buck by Pitzer ended the game.

Edwin Spicer, Biglerville tackle, was carried from the field during the second half but completely recovered later.

SQUIRES MEET YORK CATHOLIC THIS SUNDAY

Another near-capacity crowd is expected at McSherrystown Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when the undefeated Delone Catholic high football team meets York Catholic high. It will be the final game of the season for Delone.

A victory for the Squires will give them their second straight Harrisburg Diocesan championship.

Coach Alex Bell's outfit is picked to win handily although the York Catholic squad has high hopes of pulling a big upset.

The Squires chalked up eight straight wins before being held to a 19-19 tie by Harrisburg Catholic. Last week the lower countians resumed their winning ways by drubbing Reading Catholic 38-7.

Delone has not tasted defeat in its last 19 games, having won 17 in a row until tied by the Harrisburg team.

Popcorn Murren, one of the ace backs for the Squires who was injured at Reading, is expected to be able to start against York.

FAVORS AID FOR 14 PA. COLLEGES

Harrisburg, Nov. 19 (AP)—Pennsylvania's 14 state teachers' colleges are going to be put in first class condition if Gov. James H. Duff has his way.

"As far as I am concerned we are going to build up your colleges," the Governor told an association of trustees of the colleges yesterday. "We have decided that they are needed," Duff declared, "and they are going to be put in the shape they ought to have been long ago."

The new general state authority already has approved more than $10,000,000 in projects for eliminating fire and health hazards at the colleges and requests for another $10,000,000 are still pending.

Duff said a recent tour by Oscar N. Lindahl, executive director of the authority, brought a report that "it was a disgrace to have those buildings in the condition they are in."

The Governor told the trustees he was informed by Lindahl that "instead of fooling around, we ought to decide whether they are needed or not and if we decide they are, to get busy and put them into shape."

Duff said the answer to those "who say we might not need all the institutions" is that there will always be need for institutions for public service. He mentioned particularly the need for places where persons suffering from physical handicaps can receive vocational training.

FROSH DEFEAT DIPLOMATS TO END UNBEATEN

Gettysburg college's freshman football team completed a perfect season Friday afternoon by upsetting the Franklin and Marshall college yearlings 27-13 on Memorial Field before several hundred fans.

The victory was the fifth for Coach Clyde Cole's charges.

Early in the first quarter the Bullets drove deep into Diplomat territory but lost the ball on a pass interception.
Most of the play in the second period was in F. and M. territory due to a penalty late in the first quarter which put the Diplomats back on the 1-yard line from where they kicked out to the 40. After securing two first downs to the 26, Vince Rossetti, an outstanding runner all afternoon, picked up eight yards around end and then Russ Hess raced the remaining distance to score. Roy Reider's placement for the point was low.

The Bullets took the second half kickoff and moved 70 yards for a score. Rossetti and Hess turned in some nice gains and finally Berkey Ward passed to Hess who ran 20 yards to the 4. Rossetti went through left guard for the tally and Reider converted.

Blocks Punt
A few plays later Gettysburg took the ball on the F. and M. 4-yard mark on a last down blocked punt by Bill Arvidson. Hess went through tackle to score and again Reider booted the punt.

The Diplomats came back immediately and a long pass—Bob Lucas to Bruce Westerdaal—on the 40, resulted in a score when the ex-Gettysburg high star ran the remaining distance. Painter kicked the point.

F. and M. added another score early in the final period when a pass interference penalty put the ball on the Bullets' 35. Another pass put the ball on the 11 and then Lucas passed to Diehl in the end zone for the touchdown. The extra point kick was wide.

The final Gettysburg score came on a 40-yard run by Rossetti after he broke through the line. Reider added the point on a kick.

The Bullet defensive line, led by Ewing and Hossfeld, played a strong game. Lucas and Westerdaal played a good game for F. and M.

Bob Hottle suffered a minor injury early in the second period and did not return to the lineup.

Jack Kramer And His Troupe Back

New York, Nov. 19 (AP)—Professional tennis king Jack Kramer and his touring troupe of pros returned to New York last night but this time their talents were displayed at the Jamaica arena instead of Madison Square Garden.

Kramer and company played in the garden on Oct. 25 and drew 13,357. Last night some 3,200 laid it on the line at the smaller arena.

Kramer, as he did in the garden, defeated 1949 national amateur titlist Dick (Pancho) Gonzales, 9-11, 8-6, 7-5. The victory was Kramer's 10th straight and gave him a 14-3 lead in the series.

Pancho Segura defeated Frankie Parker, 6-1, 6-3, in the semi-final match. Segura now has won 13 out of 17 matches from Parker. The quartet plays in New Haven, Conn., tonight.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Nov. 19 (AP)—Ruford Fred Walters, who had to walk a lot farther than usual when he refereed that Tulane-Vanderbilt game last week, claims football is getting too rugged for some officials.

Fred, whose ordinary business as a baseball manager keeps him on a bench, predicted: "Unless coaches, players and fans undergo a drastic change of attitude, the better officials are going to find easier ways of spending their Saturday afternoons."

Maybe that's the spot to introduce two-platoon officiating—or at least add a knockdown time-keeper to the list. . . . And cagey Jim Conzelmann warns that pro football eventually will turn into a wrestling match unless there's stricter interpretation of the rule about hand-girding ends to keep them from getting downfield for passes. . . . Jim says the defenders, instead of merely checking and hand-fighting until the play develops, are moving laterally to continue such tactics.

THAT'S THE "L" OF IT
Just by way of emphasizing the headaches connected with football, Lehigh's Charlie Moravec forwards an account of a conversation between Ticket Manager Paul Short and an irate ex-football captain. . . . The alumnus beefed loudly at receiving tickets in section "L," which is in the end zone at Taylor stadium.

After hearing the complaint, Short merely asked, "Do you know where the game is to be played?" and suggested that the alumnus look again at his tickets. . . . The guy did and saw "Bethlehem high school stadium" printed on them. . . . Then Short told him section "L" at the high school field is on the 50-yard line.

SPORTSMENSHIP
Dodger scouts say there were only three "good" picks in the recent major league draft—that is, guys who can be expected to stay in the majors next year. . . . And they get a chuckle out of the A's choice of Ed Hrabczak, who fanned 234 men in the colonial league. . . . "Why," says one Brooklynite, "I've seen guys who couldn't win in the Queens Alliance who went up there and won."

NAVY PUT ON "SPOT" AGAIN BY CROMMELIN

Washington, Nov. 19 (AP)—Capt. John G. Crommelin put the Navy on the spot today with new charges that Pentagon "zealots" with a "lust for power" have clamped Nazi-type controls on the defense establishment.

His latest blast against Pentagon policy raised this ticklish question for Naval officials:

Will the Navy stand pat on a stiff rebuke already handed Crommelin for his part in a scrap among the armed services—or will it let the whole bitter row over vital defense policies blaze up one more in a court martial?

Evidently Crommelin wants a court martial and defense chiefs don't.

Congressmen Offer Help
The 48-year-old war hero insisted yesterday that either the reprimand should be erased from his otherwise sparkling record or he should be allowed to explain his actions in a court martial. That was in a letter to Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, the new chief of naval operations, who gave Crommelin a public spanking November 10.

While Sherman had no comment for the time being, some other Navy authorities said they couldn't picture the admiral backing down on his reprimand in any way.

But Crommelin isn't backing down, either, from his stand that top Army and Air Force generals are ruining the Navy's fighting power and endangering the nation's safety.

A pair of freshmen in Congress, Senator McCarthy (R.-Wis.) and Rep. Sutton (D.-Tenn.), have jumped to his side with offers of any help they can give. That includes legal advice should there be a court martial.

UN APPROVES ARMS EMBARGO

New York, Nov. 19 (AP)—The United Nations General Assembly beat down Russian opposition once again yesterday and approved an arms embargo against Greece's communist neighbors.

The assembly also voted down the Russian group in their motion to discontinue the special U.N. committee watching Greece's borders and the civil war that has raged across them.

The arms embargo was directed at Albania and Bulgaria. The assembly has only a kind of moral force with which to enforce the ban, but none of the countries in the western ranks of nations are known to be sending arms to Albania and Bulgaria now.

By a vote of 50 to six, with two abstentions, the assembly approved an American-supported proposal to impose the arms embargo until such countries as Albania and Bulgaria stop aiding Greek guerrillas fighting the Athens government.

Yugoslavia, once on the committee's list, has been dropped from this accusation since Marshal Tito split with the communist more than a year ago. The U.N. committee has reported that Yugoslavia has ceased helping the Greek rebels.

But Yugoslavia yesterday joined the Soviet bloc in opposing the resolution finally adopted. To most observers, this seemed to dash hopes that Marshal Tito's government might patch up its differences with Greece. Yugoslav Delegate Dr. Alex Bebler accused the Athens government of engaging in terrorism, atrocities and brutality, especially in Macedonia.

Emmitsburg ST. JOSEPH'S HI STUDENTS GIVE SPECIAL TALKS

Students of the various classes in English at St. Joseph's high school entertained the faculty, parents and student body Wednesday morning with a special Book Week program. William Myers, a senior, acted as master of ceremonies. Lois Hewitt took for her subject "Educating Ourselves." She was followed by James Eckert who told "How to Get the Most from a Book." Book reviews of "Seven Story Mountain" and "Tumbledown" were given by George Greco and Sandra Hall. Marjory Wasilifsky gave a humorous review of "The Type of Book to Be Avoided." An anecdote to prove that all editors are awake and alive to humor was related by John Mick while Donald Rodgers demonstrated by calling on several members of the audience.

Poetic selections were rendered by Marianne Sanders, James Tresselt, Joan Eckert and Patricia Fitzgerald.

At the end of the program the judges, Dolores Miller, Eugene Rosensteel, Mary Miller, Barbara Rosensteel and Charles Baker, rated participants on expression, quality of voice, posture and poise and enunciation. George Greco, a senior, won the contest.

Monsignor Speaks
Over 200 college and high school students gathered in the auditorium of St. Joseph's high school on Tuesday afternoon for the sectional meeting of the Blue Ridge conference of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade. The meeting was called to order by the president, George Greco, and the opening prayer was said by Fr. Charles Dausch of Hagerstown, who is moderator of the conference. Fr. Michael J. O'Brien, of Emmitsburg, welcomed the students.

The topics for discussion centered around the Holy Year of 1950. Speakers represented St. Joseph's college; St. Mary's high school, Hagerstown; St. John's high school, Frederick; St. John's high school, Westminster, and St. Joseph's high school, Emmitsburg. The speaker for St. Joseph's high was Donald Rodgers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Rodgers.

Monsignor Vaeth, director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in the archdiocese of Baltimore, addressed the students and encouraged them to achieve personal sanctity by means of working and praying for the missions and missionaries of the church. Professor Sterbinsky presided at the piano and later, at the organ in St. Joseph's church where Father O'Brien, assisted by six seminarians from Mt. St. Mary's seminary, gave solemn benediction of the blessed sacrament. Members of the Glee club were in the choir. "Paris Angelicus" was sung by a select group of high school boys.

After benediction, the students

RUSSIA RENEWS RECALL ORDER

Moscow, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Soviet government for the second time in three weeks has demanded the formal recall of Yugoslavia's top diplomat in the Russian capital.

A Soviet note said the presence in Moscow of Charge d'Affaires Lazo Latinovic, the acting head of his country's embassy staff, was "impossible."

Last month the Russians told Premier Marshal Tito's government the same thing about Yugoslav Ambassador Karl Mrazovic, whom they accused of subversive activities.

(In London the Soviet News Agency Tass said Latinovic had been expelled from Russia for spying and subversive activities. Tass also disclosed that three Russian representatives had been ordered out of Yugoslavia.)

ALWAYS GO ON

In a football game I saw a runner stumble—but he kept going on, gaining valuable yardage. I couldn't help but think of those in everyday affairs who also stumble, but who make no move, thinking that someone will take notice and help them up, rather than getting up themselves.

I have been reading about this man Hilton, who started business by owning a string of small hotels in Texas, and who was later wiped out. But he didn't quit. He went right on. He attempted bigger things. Today he is the owner of more great hotels than any other man in America, his latest purchase being the Waldorf-Astoria in New York.

Misfortune, adversity, and sorrow come to us all in time. Our cue then is not to quit and bemoan our misfortune, but to take heart — and always go on. Experience has so often taught us that better and happier days are ahead. If we didn't have our setbacks and discouragements, our blood wouldn't be stirred and our will stiffened to go forward.

Always go on, no matter what the emergency. Bad news today may only be the shadow of good news on the morrow. There are always new beginnings in the offing. Our pioneers kept going on and on into new fields that had never been discovered. It took Peary some thirty years, with repeated tries, before he finally accomplished the discovery of the North Pole.

There are few in business who have not arrived at times when everything looked dark, and when it seemed easier to quit than to go on, but had not these determined to go on, we would not have their inspiring examples of success to instill each of us with the same spirit.

From earliest youth Robert Frost wanted to be a poet. He never let this ambition die. But it was twenty years before just recognition came. His first book, "A Boy's Will," was published in England. Few were sold but he was acclaimed by noted critics in both England and America; and because he kept right on he is, today, the most outstanding poet in America, honored as few poets have ever been.

BRITISH VOTERS WILL DETERMINE STEEL ISSUE

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

There's more than appears on the surface in the British Socialist government's sensational compromise with the Conservatives whereby nationalization of the great steel industry will be delayed until after the next general election.

This steel project was top item in the nationalization program and the government had been anxious to achieve it before facing the voters again. Their sudden backflip means, as Conservative Leader Winston Churchill points out, that the election will be "almost a referendum" on the proposition of nationalizing steel.

Patriotic Gesture

Naturally this development has inspired the thought among some observers that it represents one of those patriotic gestures which John Bull characterizes as "playing cricket," that is, good sportsmanship and a democratic willingness to leave the decision to the people.

I believe Prime Minister Attlee has made this gesture mainly because he no longer is sure that his party can control a majority of the voters.

He apparently was confident a few months ago that he could win. But the economic crisis has become so complicated and uncertain that public sentiment today can't be accurately gauged. And the Conservative prospects are no more sure. So we find the government making the sweeping gesture of saying to the voters in effect:

Up To Voters

"We had intended to take over the steel industry before entering another general election. However, since this is the most important item in our program and it is a controversial one, we have decided to submit the matter to your judgment. You shall decide whether you want to proceed with the program. Meanwhile Parliament will have approved the measure authorizing nationalization if you want it."

That middle-class vote represents the balance of power. And the middle-class will know exactly what it is voting for. If it votes "yes," it will ensure a continuation of the sweeping Socialist program. If it rebuffs the Socialists and returns the Conservatives, it will mean in the language of Churchill himself:

"Should we be returned to power one of our first steps will be to ex-

New Oxford—The Rosary society of the local Catholic church held another public benefit card party at the parochial hall on Wednesday evening.

Miss Eleanor Miller, who has been living in New York, where she has a position, for more than a year, has been visiting her home here.

Many serviceable garments were received by the women of the local Catholic parish during their recent drive to obtain clothing for war victims abroad. On Sunday men of the parish assisted in packing the donated clothing for shipment.

Mrs. George W. Dunstan, who was seriously ill for a time at the Warner hospital and who is recuperating at her home, continues to improve but is still unable to go out of doors.

The Rev. Robert D. Hartnett, pastor of the Immaculate Conception Catholic church, announces that the annual Forty Hours Devotions are to begin at 7:30 Mass on Sunday, November 27, the First Sunday of Advent, and will be in charge of a Passionist Father.

Reservations have been completed by the local chapter, National Council of Catholic Women, for the Day of Recollection, to take place at St. Joseph's Academy, McSherrystown, Sunday, throughout the day.

The sophomore class of the local high school conducted a public "Sadie Hawkins" dance in the auditorium Friday evening.

Personal property of the late Miss M. Kathryn Winand, who died recently, was sold at auction Thursday afternoon at the local army by her executors, the Gettysburg National Bank, with Nathaniel C. Miller as auctioneer. The sale began before noon.

The Holy Name society of the local Catholic church conducted its November meeting in the parochial hall on Monday evening. Men of this organization went in groups punge this wanton, wasteful and partisan measure from the statute books. We shall allow the steel industry to continue its splendid career without being dragged into party politics by a fantastic, obsolete and discredited Socialist doctrine."

This of course means that Socialism will be on trial for its life in England.

BARKLEYS HEAD SOUTH ON THEIR WEDDING TRIP

St. Louis, Nov. 19 (AP)—Those famous newlyweds, Alben and Jane Barkley, were headed south on their honeymoon today, but their whereabouts was not definitely known.

Late last night a report from Paducah, Ky., said a car believed to be the one the vice president gave his bride shortly before their wedding was seen turning into "The Angles," Barkley's home near there. However, the couple's presence at the home could not be confirmed.

The Barkleys, who were married here yesterday at St. John's Methodist church, left early in the afternoon in the new convertible coupe for an unannounced destination. They were seen to cross the MacArthur bridge into Illinois, but there was no further word of them.

To Live In Washington
The Veep told reporters they were headed for a honeymoon in "Shangri-La," an imaginary, utopian region. He declined to amplify, but intimated they were headed for the south, possibly Florida. Later they will reside in Washington.

Not since the 1946 World Series has an event so focused attention on St. Louis as the wedding of the 71-year-old vice-president and the 38-year-old widow, Jane Rucker Hadley. The marriage climaxed a brief but intensive courtship by the courtly Kentuckian. He met Mrs. Hadley in Washington last July. Barkley, a widower, was the first vice president to marry while holding office.

Police estimated more than 5,000 persons jammed the streets outside the church trying to get a glimpse of the bride and bridegroom when they entered and emerged from the church chapel. The simple ceremony was performed by Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, with only immediate members of the two families and numerous newspapermen present. The country's new second lady, who has admitted she "detests" all the fuss made over her, received a little lesson from her husband just after they were married.

Showers Of Rice
Referring to the cheering and milling thousands outside the church, Mrs. Barkley remarked plaintively: "I hate to go out in that mess."

The Veep responded quickly: "That's not a mess, dear; that's the American public out there."

Then, escorted by the veteran statesman, to whom cheering crowds were nothing new, the bride smiled and gestured prettily as she made her way to their car amid showers of rice.

A luncheon at the home of friends followed the ceremony. Then the famous newlyweds took off for "Shangri-La."

FATAL ACCIDENT

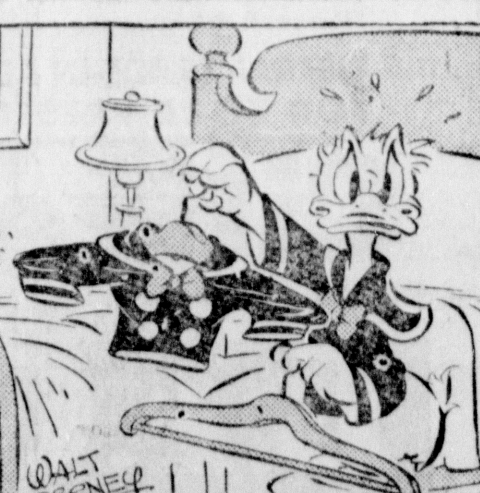

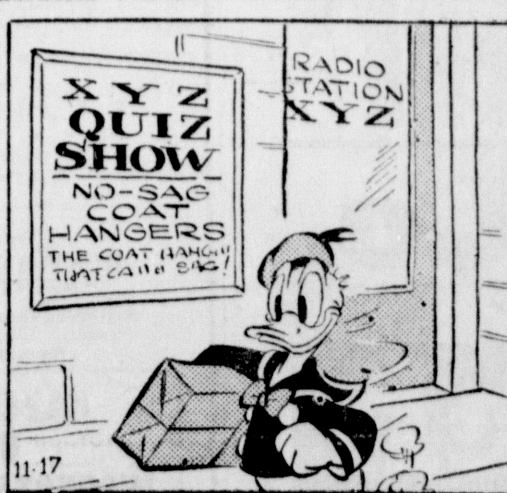

Easton, Pa., Nov. 19 (AP)—Collision of two cars a mile west of Moorestown on Route 512 resulted in the death of Peter N. K. Schwenk, 60-year-old Boyertown insurance agent, and injuries to two state liquor board agents from Kingston. The injured were taken to St. Luke's hospital, Bethlehem, yesterday. They are Robert Larmouth, 38, and Francis Lagan, 38. Their condition is reported as fair.

38 CATTLE BURN

Pine Grove, Pa., Nov. 18 (AP)—Fire killed 38 head of prized Holstein cattle and destroyed 50 tons of hay and straw and farm machinery when it swept the barn of Charles M. Fehr. Fehr said he valued the cattle at $10,000 and the other property at $15,000.

Washington, Nov. 19 (AP)—Union miners pitched in quickly and dug about 4,752,000 tons of soft coal last week after John L. Loft ordered them back to work on Wednesday. The National Coal association estimated total bituminous production for the week ended Nov. 12 was 7,100,000 tons.

SCORCHY SMITH

Guilty Of Selling Answers To Exams

Philadelphia, Nov. 19 (AP)—A member of the state Board of Pharmacy and a patent medicine manufacturer have been found guilty of selling answers to examinations given by the board to prospective pharmacists.

Immediately after a jury returned the verdicts against Dr. David C. Gross, the manufacturer, and Mark L. Rothman, the board member, Judge Curtis Bok announced that warrants have been issued for two men described as "go-betweens" in the conspiracy.

One warrant was issued for John J. Sabatino, the state's star witness in the trial. The other was for Joseph DiGiovanni.

Rothman and Dr. Gross have been released in $1,000 bail each pending the filing of a motion for a new trial. Deputy Attorney General Robert J. Kunzig produced witnesses during the trial who testified that candidates for the examinations paid $1,500 each for the answers.

OFFICIALS FACE FINES

Pittsburgh, Nov. 19 (AP)—Two officials of the defunct Keystone Mutual Casualty company today faced fines of $500 to $5,000 each on charges of making false statements about the firm's financial status. They are Nathan P. Kann, secretary, and Andrew J. O'Leary, vice president of the firm. The jury spent a little more than an hour yesterday in reaching a verdict.

'Open House'

Mr. Benson continued. "The library has always kept within its budget and never has operated in the red," he pointed out.

Has 13,000 Books

Chief items in the annual budget of the library have been $3,500 a year from the county, $2,500 annually from the state, $500 to $600 a year from the borough of Gettysburg and memberships from all parts of the county. One dollar annual memberships, $5 group and business memberships and $25 life memberships have been available. This year the Gettysburg Community Chest gave the library $1,750 and has put an equal sum in its 1950 budget for the library. No solicitation of memberships has been made by the library in Gettysburg since the Chest began operating.

"For the past four years," said Mr. Benson, first president of the library association, our records show that 75 per cent of our service has been to the children of Adams county outside of Gettysburg. We are calling upon the citizens of the county to have a hand in making this permanent library home a reality. Let's all help hammer this old county jail building into an institution for character building with county-wide educational values. We will and can make county and national history by so doing."

The library now has a collection of nearly 13,000 volumes but in the finance committee's list of goals is a $5,000 item for new books to build up the library's supply and to replace books that are constantly being worn out and taken out of circulation.

To Give Year's Report
In spite of the fact that the main library was closed for about a month this fall during the renovations, book loans for the current year already are nearing the 90,000-mark, reports by Miss Anna Farran, librarian, show. A summarized report for the last year of library service will be presented by Miss Farran at next Tuesday evening's meeting.

The library's bookmobile, which averages about 675 miles a month has covered more than 15,000 miles delivering books to every section of the county. Besides serving schools, library branches and book stations, the bookmobile has served the Warner hospital, the county home and the Southern California-Notre Dame football series, inaugurated in 1926, is the oldest on the 1949 Irish slate.

Adults' Reading Room And Reference Room In New Library

The upper photo shows the western end of the front section of the new library with the doors at the left leading into a reference room at the rear. The reference room is shown in the lower picture. In the old jail building, this area was part of the living quarters for the sheriff and his family. The rooms have been redecorated and the doorways were made on each side of the imitation fireplace. All shelving shown here was built to fit the wall areas available. (Photos by Lane Studio.)

the county jail.

The library began operations October 1, 1945, at 135 Carlisle street.

Actual library service began January 1, 1946, and the bookmobile was secured a short time later and began its trips with Miss Kathryn Oiler, the first librarian, at the wheel. Both the general library and bookmobile service have been continued without interruption since that time although the main library was closed briefly this fall.

Miss Anna Farran, who is ending 15 months as Adams and Franklin county librarian, will be succeeded here January 1 by Miss Lillian J. Lawyer, who will be full time librarian for this county. Miss Lawyer, formerly of Littlestown, now is director of work with young people in the public libraries of the District of Columbia. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Lawyer, Littlestown R. D. She is a graduate of Pennsylvania State college and the library school of the Carnegie Institute.

With expanding future needs in sight for the library, its finance committee suggested this list of gifts for prospective donors in addition to the $16,000 sought for the building cost and renovation and the $5,000 new book fund: Typewriter

Little has yet been done to the exterior of the old jail building. A new front door has been installed but the library board has plans for improving the front of the building and its surroundings when money is available. (Gettysburg Times Photo.)

AMERICA MOVES TO STRENGTHEN SELF IN EAST

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

The western powers having at least temporarily contained the Bolshevik drive in Europe, America is making energetic moves to strengthen her position in the Far East where Communism's mounting success threatens to turn that part of the globe into the political Armageddon of the 1950s.

With this in view Uncle Sam's head diplomats in eastern Asia have been ordered to hold a regional conference in Bangkok, Thailand, in January to consider the general situation. Meantime the Washington administration's top diplomatic trouble-shooter, Ambassador Philip C. Jessup, also will make a survey of the situation and then meet with his colleagues in the Siamese capital. That will be a major policy conference.

Bristling With Problems
This whole vast area fairly bristles with problems. Foremost among these are the question of a Japanese peace treaty; the position of strategically located Korea, which is a land divided against itself—Communist in the north and Democratic in the south; the complex Chinese situation where Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government has all but been knocked out in the military sense.

From the American standpoint the Chinese situation has been seriously complicated through the imprisonment of U.S. Consul General Angus Ward and four of his staff by the Communists in Mukden. President Truman has denounced this as an outrage. The Reds charge Ward with having beaten a Chinese employee, and they have ignored official American inquiries regarding the prisoners.

One of the immediate results of this ugly controversy has been the declaration by Secretary of State Acheson that the United States won't even think about recognizing the Red Chinese regime in Peking until Ward is released. What effects this will have on the Communists remains to be seen, but it undoubtedly will hurt, because they want and need recognition by the western powers. Moreover they need material assistance, especially of the sort which only America could supply.

Daytime Siesta Cost Cops Jobs

Philadelphia, Nov. 19 (AP)—The daytime siesta is not looked upon with favor in this city in the northern clime.

That was the rude awakening given six policemen yesterday when they were found dozing peacefully in pairs in squad cars by two police investigators.

All six were brought to headquarters and given their walking papers.

MARINE CORPS PILOT KILLED

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 19 (AP)—A Marine Corps pilot was killed last night when his Navy fighter plane cracked up on a snow-blanketed mountainside in nearby Pennsylvania.

Officials at the Quantico, Va., Marine Corps base identified the pilot as First Lieut. May H. Rosecrans, 28, formerly of 1201 Roosevelt avenue, McDonald, Pa.

Next of kin were listed as the widow, Mrs. Mildred L. Rosecrans, and three children of Midway Island, near Quantico.

State police said the man's body was found about 15 feet from where his plane, a Corsair (F4U), crashed into Allegheny mountain near Glen-coe, Pa.

Believed en route from Washington to Pittsburgh, the pilot apparently lost his way in a snowstorm which blew over the area.

A team of Navy investigators was reported on its way to the scene of the crash from Johnstown, Pa.

Krall resided in this area until a few years ago.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hinkel, R. 2, have arrived safely in Punta Gorda, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

The Mite society of Zwingle Reformed church reports great success with the chicken pie supper conducted at the church annex last week.

Charles B. Wallace is reported improved after the recent illness that confined him to bed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Whited are moving this week-end from Gettysburg to the cottage which they recently purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kothe, who have moved to a newer cottage nearby.

The Rev. and Mrs. Alton Leister and three children moved Tuesday from Manchester, Md., to the Zwingle Reformed parsonage, the Rev. Mr. Leister having accepted a call to the local Reformed church.

Donald Spangler, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron C. Spangler, is now able to leave his home and walk short distances with crutches, having spent several months in a cast and much of the time in the Hanover hospital due to multiple fractures sustained in an auto crash May 28.

Willis A. Myers, Harrisburg, formerly of Two Churches, will celebrate his 89th birthday on Thanksgiving Day. He enjoys good health despite somewhat impaired sight.

The three Protestant churches of the borough are combining to hold their Union Thanksgiving service for the public in the annex of Zwingle Reformed church at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, November 23.

The Willing Workers class of Trinity Lutheran Sunday school, taught by Mrs. Charles L. Gentzler, will hold a bake sale on Wednesday at the Firestone store, beginning at 11 a. m.

With all the new kinds of grilles it's no wonder the shopper for new models asks "What's cooking?"

Apropos Of Anti-Freeze

Simple as it may seem tanking up with anti-freeze is a job that breaks down into three important sections. First, there is the draining and flushing and what might be called the period of preparation. Next there is the actual filling which calls for using the right amounts of anti-freeze and water, proper mixing, consideration for the motor thermostat and the addition of rust inhibitor if the solution is a cheaper brand which does not already include it. Then there is the re-checking. This may involve repeating any of the work that has previously been done if a leak develops or if the motor runs too hot.

And that is just the starter. For continued protection it is essential to check the coolant every now and again. Where a car is used extensively engineers now recommend a complete new mid-winter refilling of permanent anti-freeze. This is a safeguard against possible gasket damage from too much acid in the coolant, the normal result of slow leakage of gas vapors into the cooling system.

Another Starting Trick

In the old days it used to be customary to give the motor a few spins with the starter before switching on the ignition, but since so many of the later cars can't be cranked unless the ignition is switched on, the idea has fallen by the wayside. But there's a way to circumvent this. Just lift the hood and pull the high tension wire from the distributor or the coil. Crank a moment, hook up the wire again, then switch on the ignition and crank again. The idea is when cranking is difficult as on a very cold morning it helps to have the cylinders build up a little mixture before switching on the ignition.

One For The Book

You'd never guess it but one of the baffling problems faced by service men has to do with the breaking of distributor rotors on two of the current cars. The best information I have been able to gather from the makers of ignition parts is that the rotor fit on these cars is especially tight due partly to the use of a smaller than normal distributor shaft. Owners and mechanics press down at the rotor tip or the extension of the base rather than at the center, the result being that the rotor is then slightly cocked. It then needs merely a slightly wobbling shaft to cause its tip to strike the firing studs of the distributor, and crack.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"With all the consideration given to the subject of low oil pressure you'd think there would be more interest in the importance of unrestricted oil flow. The tendency is to suspect the pump gears of being worn and the motor bearings of being loose. Something that escapes attention is the screen of the oil pump intake which often becomes clogged. One of the first steps in a low pressure problem is thus to take a look at the screen and clean it thoroughly if at all clogged."

So You're An Expert

We're all being judged for our capability as a wheel twirler and here are a few of the things others like to see in us:

We never let the car roll backward more than a foot. We keep our left arm off the windshield so that it is always free to control the car's course in an emergency. We do not remain behind a pokey driver because that starts a line. We are never blinded by oncoming headlights because we never look into them. It takes us about a minute to park, and without the usual stock complaints.

Three To Remember

When adjusting brakes always set them for maximum equalization at maximum pedal pressure. Unless this is done there is always the good chance that the brakes won't be equalized for medium stops. Excessive resistance in shock absorber action is usually due to broken internal parts rather than to lack of fluid.

If you install an oil filter don't turn the return pipe to the valve chamber as this will overlubricate the valves.

That stabilizer bar, usually at the front end of the car, is something that few owners give any thought to but which occasionally needs a little attention. First of all, make sure it is intact and that the rubber bushings at its ends are secure and not disintegrated. These bushings will be more pliable if lubricated with brake fluid, but never use petroleum lubricant.

Notes On The Garage

Having one door for the two-car garage provides a means of placing the cars to better advantage, since no center post has to be considered. . . . Fitting the newer longer car into the garage may be just a matter of raising the garage radiator at the back wall. . . . If milady likes lace curtains for the garage windows as a touch of suburban domesticity, try to sell her venetian blinds as a means of cutting out sun rays that may dull a car's finish over a period of time.

Useful To Know

A carbonized streak across the distributor's rotor body is the best sign that it has lost its electrical reliability and should be replaced. . . . From here on keep the gas tank filled at all times in order to check water from condensation due to sudden changes in temperature. . . . Tires of different makes will sometimes cause misalignment of wheels due to variation in sidewall flexibility.

Best You Can Do

So the new car will do 80 miles an hour? That's very interesting. But it gives me goose pimples. You may be very average as a driver which means that if you decided you had to stop it would take your mind and muscles somewhere between 1/4 and 1/2 of a second to get your foot on the brake pedal. In that interval the car will have traveled 73 feet nearer the danger point. If the brakes are up to par, it will take another 304 feet to stop the car. Altogether the car will have traveled 377 feet between the time you knew you had to stop and the final halt. Let me see

GROUND B-29S FOR PROBE OF 120 FATALITIES

By ELTON C. FAY

Washington, Nov. 19 (AP)—A part of the nation's B-29 bomber fleet was grounded today while the Air Force launched an investigation into a series of crashes which have killed at least 120 men in the past 12 weeks.

Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, chief of staff, issued the grounding order last night.

A few hours before, the latest crash had killed five of a nine-man crew aboard a superfortress which was taking off to help search for the 20 men aboard another B-29 missing off Bermuda since mid-week.

27 Superforts Crash
Six accidents have occurred in the past 16 days, with a known death toll of 35 and with the 20 men aboard the lost B-29 still missing.

Available unofficial records show that since August 26, when 16 crewmen died after an engine caught fire in a takeoff from Hickam Field, Hawaii, 27 superfortresses have gone down with a death toll of 120.

While the Air Force declined to say at this time how many accidents have occurred since the war or during the last year, it once estimated that during a given year it could expect about 60 B-29s to be wrecked in crashes.

This estimate was given last year by officers testifying on the Air Force appropriation bill.

To Make Inspection
In discussing the question of how many replacement aircraft would be needed, they said planning for the fiscal year was based on the probability that an average of 61 B-29s would be wrecked.

Their reference was to loss of aircraft by all types of accidents, including ground accidents or crash landings which resulted in no casualties but made the airplane useless.

Vandenberg's order will have this effect: Any superfortress used by the Strategic Air Command or the 19th Bomb Group in the Far East—unless all of its four engines have been "modernized"—is grounded until a detailed inspection can be made by technical experts.

The greater part of all B-29s are used by either SAC or the 19th group.

Search Planes Explained
A second part of the order grounds all B-29s which have been subjected to "maximum operating stresses," but this part of the directive does not apply to SAC and 19th group planes.

That is because any B-29 used by those operating forces customarily takes off heavily loaded, flies at high altitudes and high speed and otherwise undergoes "maximum operating stresses." Strict application of that order would have grounded the whole combat fleet of B-29s.

Therefore, the second part of the order apparently applied only to a relatively few B-29s used in rescue search or weather reconnaissance missions. And Vandenberg specifically exempted from both orders B-29s currently engaged in the search for the missing superfortress.

WIFE GUILTY OF "PAY" MURDER CONSPIRACY

Meadville, Pa., Nov. 19 (AP)—A jury of seven men and five women last night convicted Mrs. Theresa Hirschman, 38-year-old farm woman, of the attempted "murder for pay" of her husband, Edward, 47.

Hirschman was assaulted with a pickaxe near a barn on his Shenango township farm July 12, 1948. His son came to his rescue and the husband escaped with minor injuries.

The state contended throughout the trial that Mrs. Hirschman and her sweetheart, Clyde Ayers, 34, plotted to have the husband murdered in such a way that death would appear accidental.

Man Changed Story
They plotted, the state said, to collect double indemnity on the husband's $7,000 insurance and acquire possession of a $50,000 farm owned jointly by the husband and wife.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty on two counts: conspiracy to commit an unlawful act and assault with intent to murder. Conviction carries a maximum penalty of a 4 1/2-to-nine-year prison term.

Charles Gearhart, 20, of Smicksburg, Pa., pleaded guilty to the actual assault but later petitioned the court to permit him to change his plea to innocent. The hearing on his petition will be held November 28.

Mrs. Hirschman denied the "murder-for-pay" plot and declared: "I never asked Gearhart to knock off my husband or offered to pay him money to do it."

Society Holds Meeting
The Ladies' Aid society of St. John's Lutheran church presented $1,200 to the organ and improvement fund of the church at their monthly meeting on Thursday evening held at the home of Mrs. Sylvester Rickard, near town. The society was divided into groups and the chairman of each group gave the amount earned by her group through the sale of sandwiches, cookies, and similar sources of revenue to reach the $1,200 total.

A brush demonstration preceded the business meeting. The proceeds from the demonstration amounted to $8.66, which was placed in the society treasury. Mrs. Dallas Shriver, president, was in charge of the meeting. The opening prayer was offered by Mrs. Kenneth D. James. The secretary's report was presented by Mrs. Edwin Harget. The birthdays of Mrs. Katherine Hull and Kenneth S. James were noted.

The next meeting of the society will be a covered dish supper for the members and their families and a Christmas party will be held. Names were selected at the meeting on Thursday evening and gifts will be exchanged at the next meeting to be held on Thursday, December 29. The guest package, presented by Mrs. Sylvester Rickard, was received by Mrs. Malcolm Heiser. Re-
